MEMORANDUM FOR : Administrator, Law Enforcement
Assistance Administration

SUBJECT : "Where's What" - Sources of Information for Federal Investigators, Prepared by [REDACTED] Office of Security, Central Intelligence Agency

STATINTL

1. Reference is made to your memorandum, Subject as above, dated 17 March 1970, wherein you requested that this Agency consider declassifying "Where's What" to permit distribution of the book to appropriate state and local police officials.

STATINTL

2. [REDACTED], author of "Where's What," gave assurances to some of the contributors that the data they supplied would be protected by classifying the book CONFIDENTIAL.

STATINTL

3. This Agency recognizes that the book would assist state and local police in the performance of their duties. We are therefore contacting [REDACTED] who has retired from the Agency, to determine the identity of those individuals who were assured that the publication would be classified in an attempt to obtain permission to declassify their contributions. Moreover, it may be possible to delete those items which cannot be declassified.

4. We will keep you advised on our progress in this matter.
